

The Circus Story

by Selim and Anka

A Storybird
The Circus Story

by Selim and Anka

Illustrated by US_Magikid

Published on June 13, 2023

© Storybird 2023 All rights reserved

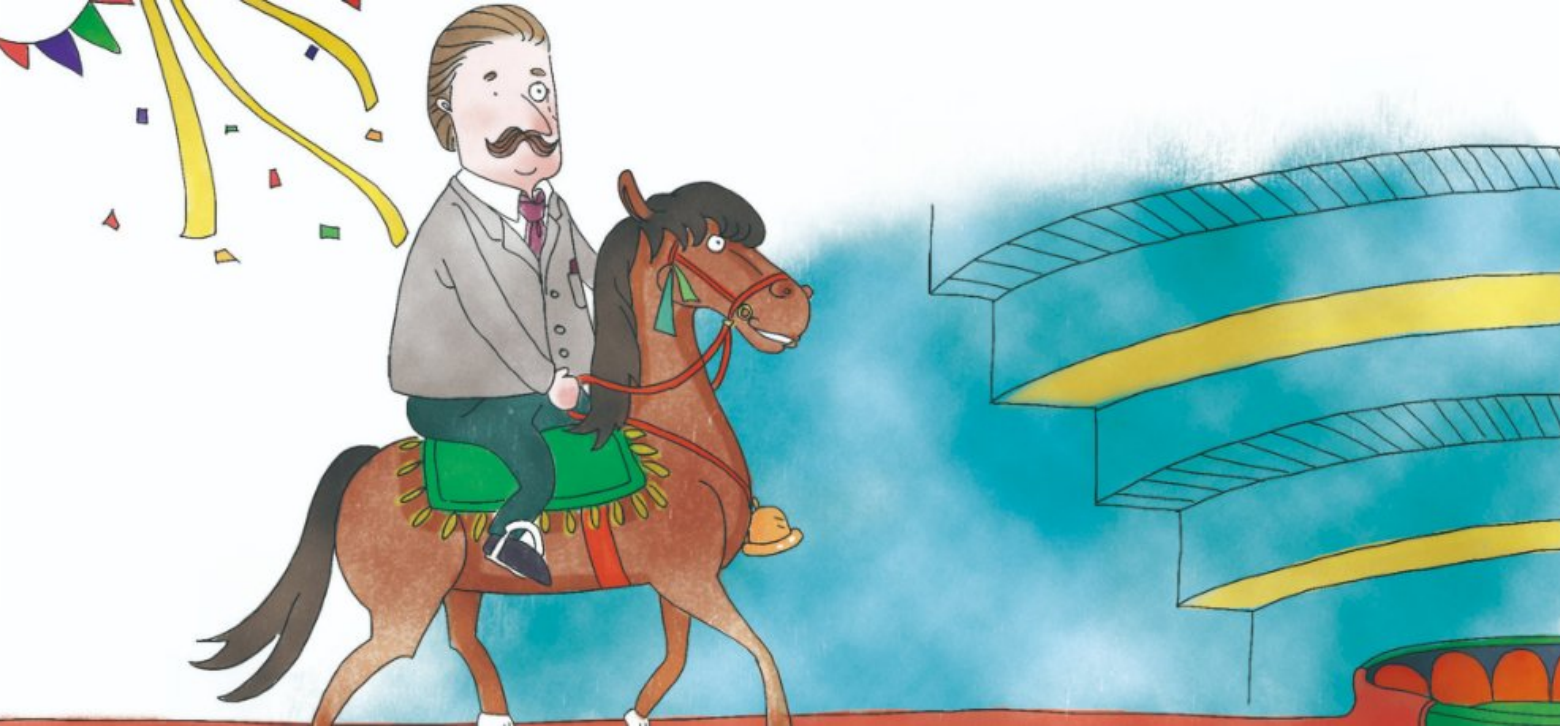

Once upon a time, a boy called Alex goes to the circus with his mum because they really like interesting shows.

In the circus they can see animals, acrobats, a clown and a ringmaster.

The ringmaster, Tom, is very serious but he really loves his circus.

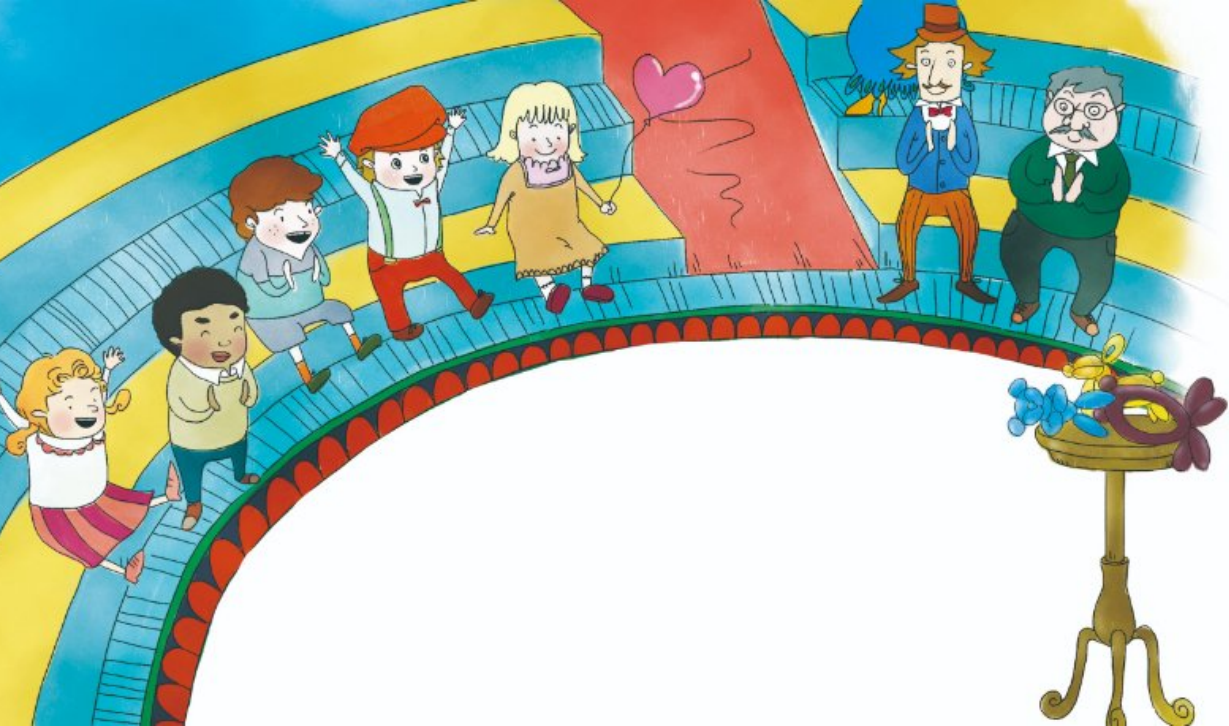

He often rides a horse and he starts the show.

Alex is looking at the show and he says 'I love this circus!'

The boy really likes the clown. His name is Joe and he likes children. He can jump, he can juggle and walk on the tightrope.

Joe talks to the boys. He says: 'Hello, children! Let's play! You can be in the show' Alex's mum says: 'Alex, go! It's your dream!'

He is looking for the magician's hat and jacket. He can't see them so...

Alex is very happy. He wants to be a magician.

...he buys them and takes them to the ringmaster. He say: Dear Ringmaster! I want to be a magician in your circus!

The kids like the show and they have got some gifts for Alex.

Next, Alex sees that is he is flying with the circus in the sky.

Alex is surprised. Alex's mum is surprised.

He is looking at the city and he says 'Good-bye'. They are going to travel with the circus to Africa and France.

